2 Peter 1:3-4

Jesus has the power of God.

His power has given us

everything we need to live and to serve God. We have these things because we know him.

Through his glory and goodness, he gave us the very great and rich gifts he promised us. With those gifts

you can share in God's nature.

And so the world will not ruin

you with its evil desires.

Hebrews 11:8-10

It was by faith Abraham obeyed God's call to go to another place that God promised to give him... He lived in tents with Isaac and Jacob, who had received that same promise from God. Abraham was waiting for the city that has real foundations—the city planned and built by God.

Genesis 12:1-3

Then the Lord said to Abram,

“Leave your country, your relatives and your father’s family.

Go to the land I will show you. I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you. I will make you famous. And you will be a blessing to others. I will bless those who bless you. I will place a curse on those who harm you. And all the people on earth will be blessed

through you.”

Hebrews 11:1-12

... It was by faith that Abraham was made able to become a father. Abraham trusted God to do what he had promised. This man was so old that he was almost dead. But from him came as many descendants as there are stars in the sky. They are as many as the grains of sand on the seashore that cannot be counted.

Genesis 15:5-6

Then God led Abram outside.

God said, "Look at the sky.

There are so many stars you cannot count them. And your descendants will be too many to count." Abram believed the Lord.

And the Lord accepted Abram's faith, and that faith made him right with God.

Joshua 21:43-45

So the Lord kept the promise he had made to the Israelites. He gave the people all the land he had promised. The Lord allowed them to have peace on all sides of their land. This is what he had promised to their people who lived long ago. The Lord allowed the Israelites to defeat every enemy. He kept every promise he had made to the Israelites.

Then anyone who asks the Lord for help will be saved. Even on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
there will be people who will be saved. This will happen just as the Lord has said. Those left alive after the day of punishment are the people whom the Lord called.

Galatians 3:13-14

So the law put a curse on us, but Christ took away that curse. He changed places with us and put himself under that curse. Christ did this so that God's blessing promised to Abraham might come to the non-Jews. This blessing comes through Jesus Christ. Jesus died so that we could have the Spirit that God promised and receive this promise by believing.

Galatians 3:15-16

Brothers, let me give you an example: Think about an agreement that a person makes with another person. After that agreement is accepted by both people, no one can stop that agreement or add anything to it.

God made promises to Abraham and his descendant.

Galatians 3:17-18

This is what I mean: God had an agreement with Abraham and promised to keep it. The law, which came 430 years later, cannot change God's promise to Abraham. Can following the law give us what God promised? No! If this is so, it is not God's promise that brings us the blessings. Instead God freely gave his blessings to Abraham through the promise he had made.

Galatians 3:19-20

So what was the law for? The law was given to show the wrong things people do. It continued until the special descendant of Abraham came. God's promise was about this descendant. The law was given through angels who used Moses for a mediator to give the law to men. But a mediator is not needed when there is only one side. And God is only one.

Galatians 3:21-22

Does this mean that the law is against God's promises? Never! If there were a law that could give men life, then we could be made right by following that law. But this is not true, because the Scriptures showed that the whole world is bound by sin. This was so that the promise would be given through faith. And it is given to people who believe in Jesus Christ.

Before this faith came, we were all held prisoners by the law. We had no freedom until God showed us the way of faith that was coming. So the law was our master until Christ came. After Christ came, we could be made right with God through faith. Now the way of faith has come, and we no longer live under the law.

The Lord is not slow in doing what he promised—the way some people understand slowness. But God is being patient with you. He does not want anyone to be lost. He wants everyone to change his heart and life. But the day the Lord comes again will be a surprise, like a thief. The skies will disappear with a loud noise. Everything in the skies will be destroyed by fire. And the earth and everything in it will be exposed.

When that day comes, the skies will be destroyed with fire, and everything in the skies will melt with heat. But God made a promise to us. And we are waiting for what he promised—a new heaven and a new earth where goodness lives.
